Text 1: A New Beginning

Maria moved from Spain to Germany two years ago because her parents found new jobs in Stuttgart. At first, everything was difficult for her. She did not understand German well, and she felt lonely at school. She often sat alone during breaks and avoided speaking in class.

However, Maria slowly began to improve. She started attending an after-school language course twice a week. She also joined a volleyball club, where she made new friends. Her classmates helped her practice German, and she became more confident.

Now, Maria feels happy in Germany. She can speak German fluently in everyday situations and even helps new students who arrive from other countries.
